

CREEKSIDE ARTS 2018

“ The Healing Power of Creativity ”

(Entry deadline is: 3/12/18)

Come join us as we celebrate the Clayton Library’s 23rd birthday at this free annual benefit!

 3/23/18 Friday evening 6:00-8:30pm

(Opening preview of sale, demo’s & entertainment, light appetizers and awards announced to winners of juried theme...)

 3/24/18 Saturday 10:00-6:00pm

 3/25/18 Sunday 12:00noon-5:00pm (Open Mic. begins @ noontime lunch in Hoyer Hall. Library opens @ 1:00pm)

The following information, application and jury entry forms can be picked up at the Clayton Library or downloaded at: www.claytonlibrary.org

Call for Participants – seeking visual and performing artists including all visual artforms, authors, storytellers, poets, dancers, musicians, etc.,.

Application form for Artists/Vendors - for those seeking space to sell throughout the weekend, requested donation: $35 plus 20% sales (all tax-deductible). (Non-profit environmental education groups offered space on a first come, first served basis free-of-charge and 20% of sales if applicable.)

Entry form for Juried theme, "The Healing Power of Creativity" - for those interested in submitting artforms interpreting the above theme. Requested donation: $20 (all tax-deductible) for up to 3 submissions (If they are also selling their work during the weekend and have paid the $30, the $20 will be waived for juried submissions.) Jurors represented from California Writer’s Club, Art Concepts, Inc., Arts & Culture Commission of Contra Costa County. Additionally, votes will be collected for new People’s Choice category.

Please contact below for questions:

Arlene Kikkawa-Nielsen
Event Director, Creekside Arts 2018!
Acting/Founding Director, Creekside Artists Guild
Community Events Coordinator, Clayton Community Library Foundation
creeksideartsfest@gmail.com or (925) 864-3805